

NM Quarter Horse Association

Stallion Service Auction, Stallion & Mare
Nominations, and Futurity General Information

1 ~ 2 ~ 3 ~ 4 Ways to Participate:

1 ~ Stallion Service Auction ~ 2010 Breeding Season

Buy a stallion service available through mail-in bid.

Minimum bid for NM stallions $300, stallions standing out of state $400. Get a great deal!

Many stallions have proven show records and/or proven sire records.

Halter and Performance (Reining, Cutting, Western Rail Classes, Trail, Hunter under Saddle).

Variety of Coat Colors: Bay, Palomino, Grey, Sorrel, Buckskin, Sorrel, Roan.....

2 ~ Nominate your AQHA Stallion

Donate a breeding to be sold through mail-in auction or pay nomination fee to make your stallion's offspring eligible to compete in breeders classes at futurity.

When a stallion service is sold or paid up, ALL his AQHA offspring are eligible to compete in 2010

Futurity Breeders Classes for Foals by Nominated Stallions PLUS the 2011 foals by stallions standing in NM are eligible through their three year old year.

Stallion owner shares in money won by his offspring.

Nominated stallions are listed in Today's Horse Trader magazine, other publications and on the NMQHA website.

Deadline for nomination is June 15th.

3 – Nominate your NM Owned AQHA Mare

Nominate your mare by paying nomination fee making her foals eligible to compete in breeders classes at futurity.

Mare must be NM owned by February 1st 2010.

When a mare is paid up, ALL her AQHA foals are eligible to compete in 2010 Futurity Breeders Classes for Foals out of Nominated Mares

PLUS her 2011 foals are eligible through their three year old year.

Mare owner shares in money won by her foals.

Deadline for nomination is July 15th.

4 – Enter Futurity Classes at NM State Fair,

Albuquerque – September 2010

OPEN CLASSES & BREEDERS CLASSES

OVER $10,000 AWARDED IN CASH

& PRIZES IN 2009!

See entry form or complete rules for class list – Open and Amateur classes expanded in 2010 and Youth Performance Classes added.

Halter, Lunge Line, Western Pleasure, Hunter under Saddle and Reining Classes for prospects three and under for Foals by Nominated Stallions, out of Nominated Mares and Open Classes for Any Registered Horses.

Entry payments due June 15th, July 15th, and August 15th. Late entries accepted until day before futurity at increased fees.

Please see complete Futurity Rules as revised 2010 for more information or contact Berniece Zielke at lhrramorris@juno.com or (505) 861-2164.